

Does The Bible Really Say That?

2: "You Are Too Far Gone"

Jeremiah 29:10-11

January 17, 2016 Kemptville CRC

"...For I know the plans I have for you"

- Can you ask for directions? Or whip out the instruction manual to put a BBQ or Ikea furniture together? Why's that SO hard?

- the pitch: "God has a plan for you. Look carefully, or else you'll miss it!"
Does the Bible really say that?

- "Is this really what God wants me to be doing with my life right now?"
Have you asked that question?
Is there only one right answer? Why (not)?

ISRAEL

- Their purpose (Genesis 12:3):
- wavered in it until sent to exile
- Jeremiah's message (Jeremiah 29:10-11)
note how it differed from that of other "prophets" of the day

- God's plan for exiled Israel:

- God's plan and hard times: Deuteronomy 8:5; Hebrews 12:6-7

His power to redeem broken situations is bigger than our ability to mess things up

PAUL

- his early history
- Acts 9: pinned into a corner
- Acts 16:6-10: wandering around until....

- God's plan: can be particular, or very organic

- Ephesians 2:8-10.....
